

St. Paul study groups offered at two churches

St. John Church as well as St. Thomas More in Darien are offering an in-depth study of the life and writings of St. Paul in honor of the Year of St. Paul.

His Holiness Benedict XVI has declared June 28, 2008 to June 29, 2009, the Year of St. Paul, in celebration of the 2,000-year anniversary of the birth of the Apostle to the Gentiles.

The program is entitled "In the Footsteps of St. Paul" and will meet weekly September through May.

A total of three groups are offered, one at St. Thomas More, and two at St. John. The groups are lead by Maryann Knag, a 37-year Darien resident and member of St. Thomas More Parish. of Darien. She is a career teacher with a degree in Bible, Hebrew and Greek from Yale Divinity School.

All are welcome for the program, and no registration is necessary. Just come with a Bible.

The St. Thomas More group meets on Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 11, in the Rectory Annex, 374 Middlesex Road, Darien. The St. John groups meet on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 8:30, in the O'Brien Room of the Parish Center and again on Thursday mornings from 9:30 to 11, in the lower church, 1986 Post Road, Darien.
